Day 1: Los Angeles - Sequoia National Park – Modesto

In the morning, en route onto Highway 99 to start the 3-day journey. Arrive at Fresno around noon. After lunch, proceed to Kings Canyon and Sequoia National Park. Sequoia trees are the prime attraction of Sequoia National Park. Many groves of the remarkable giant sequoia are found scattered along the moist, wet-facing slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains. Along with Kings Canyon National Park, it is also the home for high peaks, deep canyons, placid lake and giant trees. Stay overnight at Modesto.

Hotel: Days Inn or similar

Day 2: Salmon Farm – Lake Tahoe – Reno

Lake Tahoe is often referred as the perfect year round vacation destination with terrific weather and breathtaking mountain and lake scenery. Lake Tahoe runs 22 miles and highs 6000 feet. The water is so clear that you can see 75 feet beneath the water surface. You may take a lake cruise at your own cost to sightsee the scenery (optional). Afterwards, go to Salmon Farm , then proceed to Reno in the evening, which serves a mixture of tantalizing entertainment and gambling. Stay overnight at Reno.

Hotel: Circus Circus or similar

Day 3: Sacramento – Los Angeles

In the morning, continue to the state capital of California, Sacramento. It used to be a cattle auction center until it became the capital of California in 1854. Sacramento has been called a snapshot of Wild West history in a modern world-class city. Its amenities combined with the rich history of California's Wild West, help visitors once again Discover Gold in California's Capital City. After visiting the state capital building, proceed to Los Angeles. The memorable journey is concluded upon arriving in Los Angeles in the evening.
